College Red Ribbon Committee Inspires Youth Engagement on National Youth Day

Date: January 12, 2024

In a spirited celebration of National Youth Day, the College Red Ribbon Committee orchestrated a dynamic event engaging 44 students in various activities. The day kicked off with a welcome address by Principal Prof. Muzafar Ahmad Bhat, urging students to actively participate in activities like the Painting Competition, Poster Making Competition, and Symposia focusing on HIV awareness. Facilitated by judges Prof. Riyaz Ahmad and Dr. Aijaz Ahmad Wani, the competitions showcased the students' artistic talents, addressing critical societal themes. Mr. Irshad Ahmad Lone, the College Red Ribbon Club Incharge, played a pivotal role in organizing the event, creating a platform for open discussions on pressing issues. As the day concluded, winners were felicitated, acknowledging their outstanding contributions. The event not only celebrated creativity but also fostered awareness and discussions on topics crucial to society. The College Red Ribbon Committee's dedication to youth-led initiatives was evident, emphasizing the significance of such endeavors in shaping a socially aware and engaged community. The successful event received praise from both faculty and students, underscoring the importance of youth involvement in community development.
