Subject: Celebration of Gandhi Jyanti.

In pursuant to the communication received from Directorate of Colleges vide No. DC-HE/K/1593/2023 Dated 11-09-2023 and communication vide DCA/Debates and Seminar/23/1825 dated 12-09-2023, Department of History today on 15th September 2023 organized a symposium/deliberation on the theme, “Truth and Non Violence” to commemorate the contributions of the Father of Nation. The program began with a welcome address presented by Dr. Kowser Ahmad Ganai, Assitant professor in Department of History. Dr. Ganai, besides cordially welcoming guests, participants and audience emphasized upon the need to conduct such programs and touched upon the outlined theme. The welcome address was followed by deliberations by a string of speakers of the occasion who threw light on various aspects of the theme.

Mr. Mohd Aarif from semester 6th touched upon the various contours of Mahatma’s philosophy of truth and non-violence. Mohd Muzamil from semester 6th emphasized upon the fact that Mahatmas philosophy of truth and non violence should be observed at individual/personal level and that in turn will have impact at social, national and global level. Fahad-bin-Ishaq, next speaker from 5th semester highlighted need to follow the belief and practice of truth as emphasized by Mahatma; it is the practice of truth that leads to practice of non violence. Waheed-us-zaman from 6th semester touched upon the development of the philosophy of truth and non violence and traced its development to Mahatmas’ occupation in South Africa. Aaqib Abass shed light on personality of M.K. Gandhi and the circumstances that shaped him into Mahatma. Last speaker of the event Mr.Sameer Gulzar touched upon some of the vital aspects of philosophy of Truth and Non violence. All the speakers unanimously emphasized upon the value of Mahatmas philosophy of “Truth and Non Violence” and its relevance in the present scenario.

The program concluded with Vote of Thanks presented by Prof. Nisar Ahmad Kumar, Head Department of History. Prof. Kumar besides thanking all the participants whose presence led to the successful culmination of the event stressed upon the need to enlighten the masses with Mahatmas philosophies particularly the philosophy of truth and non violence to make the world a better place to live in.
