Report

GDC Anantnag Pays Tribute to Martyrs on 30th January – Martyr's Day

Anantnag, January 30, 2024; Government Degree College (GDC) Anantnag observed a two-minute silence from 11:00 am to 11:02 am on Martyr's Day to honor those who sacrificed their lives for India's freedom. Departments and employees halted work to pay respects. Worthy Principal Prof. Muzafar Ahmad Bhat initiated the commemoration with a poignant lecture on the Indian Freedom Struggle, emphasizing the sacrifices of key figures. The college community, including faculty and staff, actively participated. A two-minute silence created a reflective atmosphere, symbolizing collective remembrance. Mr. Irshad Ahmad Lone expressed gratitude in the vote of thanks, urging unity and a commitment to preserving the legacy of those who fought for independence. The event concluded, leaving a lasting impression of reverence for the martyrs and a renewed dedication to the ideals they upheld.
