

PANCH PRAN OF AMRIT KAAL
District level Yuva Utsav- India @2047
Organized by
GDC Anantnag
in collaboration with
Nehru Yuva Kendra, Anantnag

REPORT

Government Degree College Anantnag in collaboration with Nehru Yuva Kendra, Anantnag organised one day program on Panch Pran of AMRIT KAAL, District level Yuva Utsav- India @2047 in college campus on 23rd May, under the dynamic leadership of Worthy Principal, Prof. Muzafar Ahmad Bhat. The overarching aim was to provide general platform to different talents haunts includes declamation, poetry, cultural talent for the integration of country, among the students of various colleges of district Anantnag UT of Jammu and Kashmir, India. The event was kick- started by the worthy Deputy Commissioner Anantnag Mr. Syed Fakhrudin Hamid, IAS and Principal, Professor Muzafar Ahmad Bhat, and the event was moderated by the student Numeer Ahmad of GDC Anantnag.

Professor Muzafar Ahmad Bhat, principal, GDC Anantnag, present a memento to Deputy commissioner Anantnag Dr. Syeed Fakhrudin Hamid, IAS (chief guest) as a token of love.

Deputy Director Nehru Yuva Kendra, Anantnag Mr. Khaleel Ahmad Mir, present a memento to Professor Muzafar Ahmad Bhat, principal, GDC Anantnag as a token of love.

Professor Muzafar Ahmad Bhat, principal, GDC Anantnag, with his inaugural talk, welcome all the dignitaries of the event and emphases on performing different programs of art, singing, painting, photography, poetry and culture activities besides academic performances. Professor Muzafar also highlights the significance and importance of these events for all-round development of the students.

Prof. Farooq Ahmad Malik, Coordinator and Convenor today's event and Debate, seminar committee deliver key note address, in his key note address Prof. Farooq Ahmad Malik briefly provide the idea why we are celebrating program like this and was of this opinion that these programs should be taken as just extension of class work, Prof. Farooq also emphasis on this note that these events will became the platform for various students of this district for intellectual thought development and helps in integration of society in latter part of life. These events also evolve us how to develop the ideological differences and critiques. At last Prof. Farooq requests all the judges to make reasonable judgements and thank all the participants of different colleges of the said districts.

Worthy Deputy Commissioner Anantnag Mr. Syed Fakhrudin Hamid, IAS was the chief guest of this grand event, the guest speaker started his talk by providing his example of IAS interview that how these co-curricular activities helped me to make possible in the final list of UPSC.

Mr. Syed Fakhrudin Hamed stressed upon the students that besides main focus on primary education, you should engage in extracurricular activities like today's talent hunt program. The students should provide almost equal opportunity for these events for personal growth and development.

In his talk, Worthy Deputy Commissioner told that there very much positives of these events but most important one is that it helps in development of humility.

The chief guest thrust that now a day's society is running towards psychological stress, trauma, drug addiction, depression social evils and to curb these annoyance in society extracurricular activities play a vital role. The guest speaker request the student community for time management, there should be no compromise on studies; you should listen carefully to the teacher fraternity and parents because you are the future of society.

Mr. Syed Fakhrudin Hamed also urged the students to use the smart phones wisely and not having adverse effects on you of this beautiful technology, because society depends on you.

At last chief guest hope for the progress and prosperity of the students and thank the college principal, NYC Anantnag and media persons and other people involved directly or indirectly in organizing this event.

Rapporteur: Dr. Sartaj Ahmad Ganie