Essay writing and group discussion on the theme "Unity in Diversity: Many Cultures, One Identity."

Department of Political Science organized an Essay writing and Group discussion session on the theme "Unity in Diversity: Many Cultures, One Identity" on 6th May, 2026. Students discussed how unity strengthened India, and diverse cultures, languages, and regional identities of Indian people help build a collective Indian identity. Students wrote essays on the same theme, which they presented to the class. The students elaborated on the idea that our diversity does not weaken us, but acts as a source of collective strength.
