REPORT ON DEBATE COMPETITION

"Gandhian Thought: An Alternative Political and Economic Order"

The Debates and Seminar Committee, in collaboration with the Departments of Economics and Political Science, organised a debate competition on the theme "Gandhian Thought: An Alternative Political and Economic Order" on 07 October 2026 in the Conference Hall of the College.

Students from the Departments of Economics and Political Science actively participated in the debate, presenting their views and engaging in meaningful deliberations on the relevance of Gandhian philosophy in shaping an alternative political and economic order.

The programme commenced with the inaugural address by Prof. Ambreen Gul, who highlighted the significance of Gandhian thought in contemporary society. Prof. Rohit Ul Bashir acted as the moderator and conducted the debate.

The jury comprised Prof. Muzamil Jan, Head, Department of Economics, and Prof. Khursheed Ahmad Wani, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science. After evaluating the participants' arguments and presentations, the jury declared the following winners:

1. First Position: Bashi Jan, 5th Semester, Department of Political Science.
2. Second Position: Harpreet Kaur, Department of Economics.
3. Third Position: Ausaf Ahmad, Department of Political Science.

The programme concluded with a formal vote of thanks presented by Prof. Lateef Ahmad Salmani, Head, Department of Persian, who appreciated the efforts of the organising committee, participating departments, jury members and students for making the event successful.
