REPORT

Mock Interview for 10+2 Lecturer Positions in Urdu Held at Government Degree College Anantnag

The Department of Urdu, Government Degree College Anantnag, organised a mock interview on 11 April 2026 at 12:00 Noon for candidates from Districts Anantnag and Kulgam who were scheduled to appear in the JKPSC interviews for the post of 10+2 Lecturer in Urdu, scheduled from 15–21 April 2026.

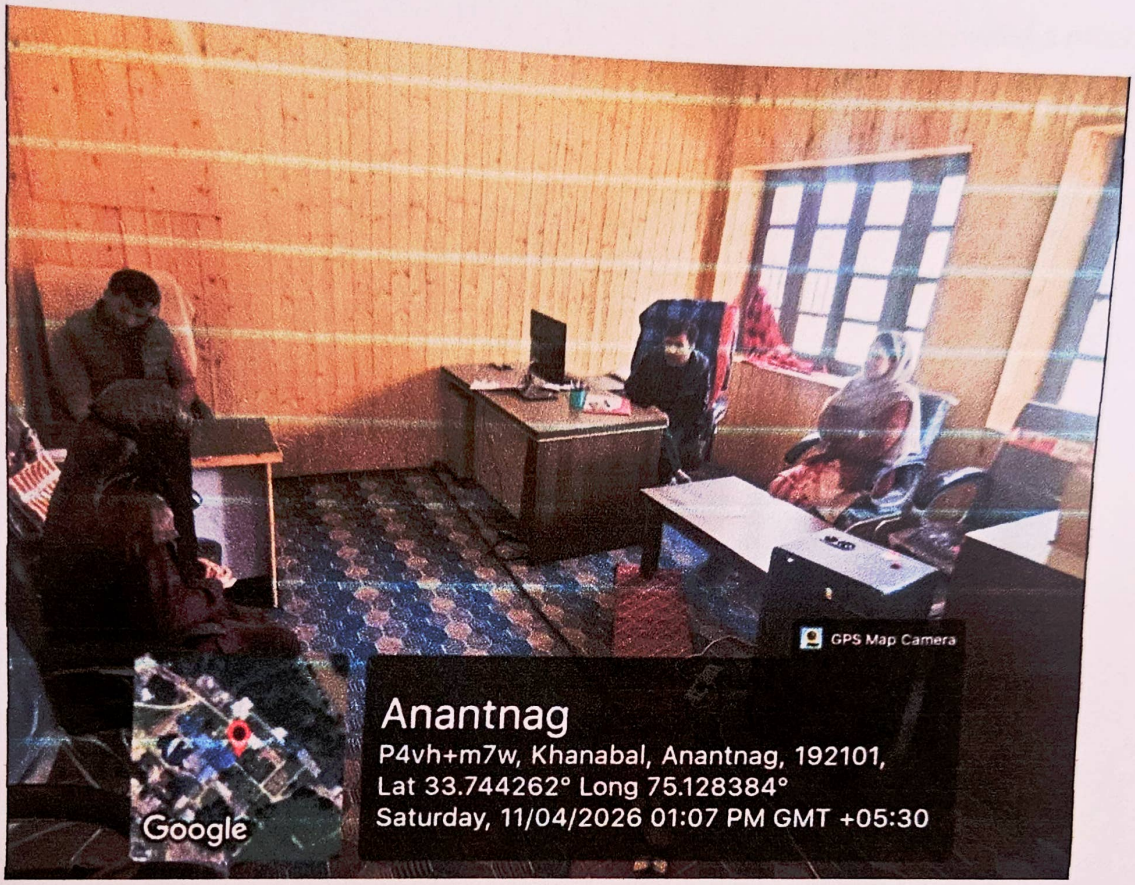

The initiative was undertaken to provide prospective candidates with an opportunity to familiarise themselves with the interview process and enhance their preparedness for the JKPSC selection interview. The mock interview was designed to simulate the actual interview environment and provide candidates with valuable insights into the nature of questions, subject knowledge, communication skills and overall interview presentation.

The participating candidates were given an opportunity to demonstrate their academic knowledge, teaching aptitude and understanding of Urdu language and literature. The exercise also helped them identify areas requiring further preparation and improvement.
