Proceedings

The programme was held in the Lecture Hall of the Department of Zoology under the theme "Zero by 30: One Health to End Rabies". Students took part actively in talks and discussions on rabies, dog bites and the One Health approach in the context of Kashmir. An expert talk was delivered by Prof. Sayar, covering rabies prevention, the importance of timely dog vaccination, responsible pet ownership and the proper management of animal bites. The session closed with the message: "Vaccinate your dog, protect your family — end rabies."

The programme helped sensitise students to rabies as a fully preventable disease and to the role of community action, vaccination and prompt post-bite care in achieving zero human rabies deaths by 2030.
