Introduction

The Department of Zoology, SHMM Government Degree College, Anantnag, organised a programme to celebrate International Tiger Day on 29th July 2026, as notified vide Notice No. 05/CCA/26 dated 20/07/2026. The programme aimed to create awareness about the conservation of tigers and other big cats, the importance of healthy forests, and harmonious human–wildlife coexistence.

Proceedings

The programme was held in the Lecture Hall of the Department of Zoology under the theme "Roar for Survival: Save the Tiger, Save the Forest". Students attended the programme and took part in the talks and discussions on Big Cat Conservation & Human–Wildlife Coexistence. An expert talk was delivered by Prof. Sayar.

Outcome

The programme helped sensitise the students to the need for conserving the tiger and its forest habitat and encouraged them to think about peaceful coexistence between people and wildlife. The Department thanks all the students for their participation.

Save the tiger, save the forest — protect the wild.
