Venue: SHMM Government Degree College Boys Anantnag	Date: August 14, 2026
Organised by: NSS, NCC Units of SHMM Government Degree College Boys Anantnag

SHMM GDC Anantnag, August 14, 2026: Partition Horrors Remembrance Day, also known as Vibhajan Vibhishika Smriti Diwas, was observed at SHMM Government Degree College Boys Anantnag on August 14, 2026, to remember the victims of the Partition of India and acknowledge the immense suffering, displacement and hardships endured by millions during that tragic period of history.

The programme was held with the participation of the teaching and non-teaching staff of the college. The Principal, SHMM Government Degree College Boys Anantnag, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. The programme provided an opportunity to reflect upon the human cost of Partition and to pay tribute to those who lost their lives and homes during one of the most painful chapters in the history of the subcontinent.

The participants observed the occasion with solemnity and respect, remembering the countless individuals and families who faced violence, displacement and separation from their homes and loved ones. The event also highlighted the importance of preserving the memories of the victims and drawing lessons from the past to promote peace, harmony, tolerance and communal understanding.

The observance concluded with a Display of Exhibitions on Tiranga, Freedom Struggle & Vande Mataram on the walls of central library of college where students showed enthusiastic participation. The students were seen discussing the role of freedom fighters, history of Freedom Struggle & Vande Mataram.

Outcome: The programme sensitised the college community about the historical significance of Partition Horrors Remembrance Day and encouraged reflection on the importance of communal harmony, national unity and peaceful coexistence.
