Overview

On the occasion of National NSS Day, the NSS Unit of SHMM Government Degree College Boys Anantnag organized an awareness session on the National Service Scheme (NSS) within the College campus. The session was conducted with the aim of familiarizing students with the aims, objectives, and spirit of the Scheme, and encouraging greater participation in its activities.

National NSS Day is observed every year on 24th September to commemorate the founding of the Scheme, and the awareness session was organized as part of the College's observance of this occasion.

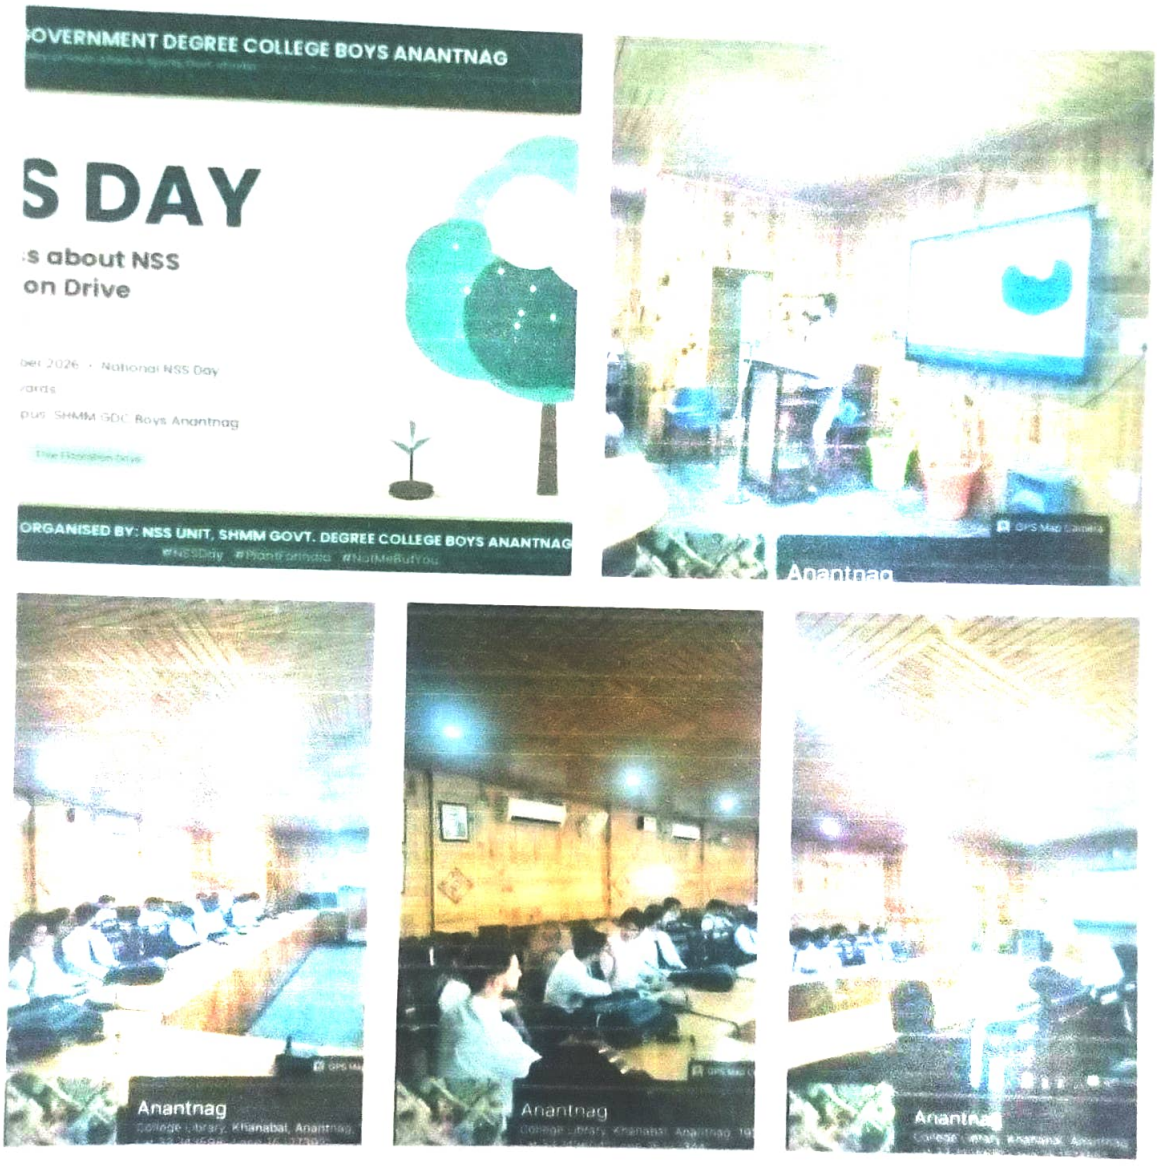

Proceedings

The session covered the history, motto, and objectives of the National Service Scheme, and highlighted its role in channelling the energy of youth towards nation-building through voluntary community service. Students were introduced to the NSS motto — "Not Me, But You" — and its underlying spirit of selfless service and social responsibility.

Key Points Highlighted

- The origin and significance of National NSS Day, observed every year on 24th September.
- The aims and objectives of the National Service Scheme.
- The NSS motto — "Not Me, But You" — and the value of selfless service.
- The role of NSS volunteers in community development and nation-building.
- Opportunities for students to actively engage in NSS activities on campus.

Conclusion

The awareness session on NSS was successfully conducted at SHMM Government Degree College Boys Anantnag, helping students develop a deeper understanding of the Scheme and inspiring greater participation in its future activities.
